

The Value of the Tokyo 2020 Games

	Olympic Games Tokyo 2020 (July 23-August 8, 33 sports, 339 events)	Tokyo 2020 Paralympic Games (August 24-September 5, 22 sports, 539 events)
Participation of athletes from around the world	About 11,000 athletes representing 205 countries/regions and the Refugee Olympic Team participated, tying the record for the most country/regions	A record 4,400 athletes representing 162 countries/regions and the Refugee Olympic Team participated
High level of athletic performance displayed	26 new world records	157 new world records (299 new Paralympic records)
The most diverse Games ever	A record number of openly LGBTQ athletes participated.
	A record 182 athletes	A record 28 athletes

Amid challenging circumstances, the Tokyo 2020 Games provided a stage for athletes to gather from around the world and give their best performances, bringing courage and hope to people everywhere.

Delivering a safe and secure Games

Positive cases among the athletes and stakeholders

Testing at airport quarantine stations
(July 1 – Sept. 6)

Prior to the Games

Projected positivity rate:
0.2%

Actual figures

Positivity rate: 0.10%

54 people tested positive out of
over 54,236 tests conducted

Screening tests
(July 1 – Sept. 6)

Positivity rate of tests conducted at busy shopping areas: 0.1%

Positivity rate: 0.03%

312* people tested positive out of
over 1,017,190 tests conducted
(*of which 164 people were Games stakeholders who traveled from overseas)

Recovery of athletes and stakeholders who tested positive

Medical institutions in Tokyo
(Hospitalized)

Projected number during the peak period: 8.5 people

Hospitalized during the peak period:

2 people*

(*Games stakeholders who traveled from overseas)

※ Admitted to Games designated medical institutions in Tokyo

Designated hotels for recovery in Tokyo

Projected number during the peak period: 44.6
people

Admitted to designated hotels:

49 people*

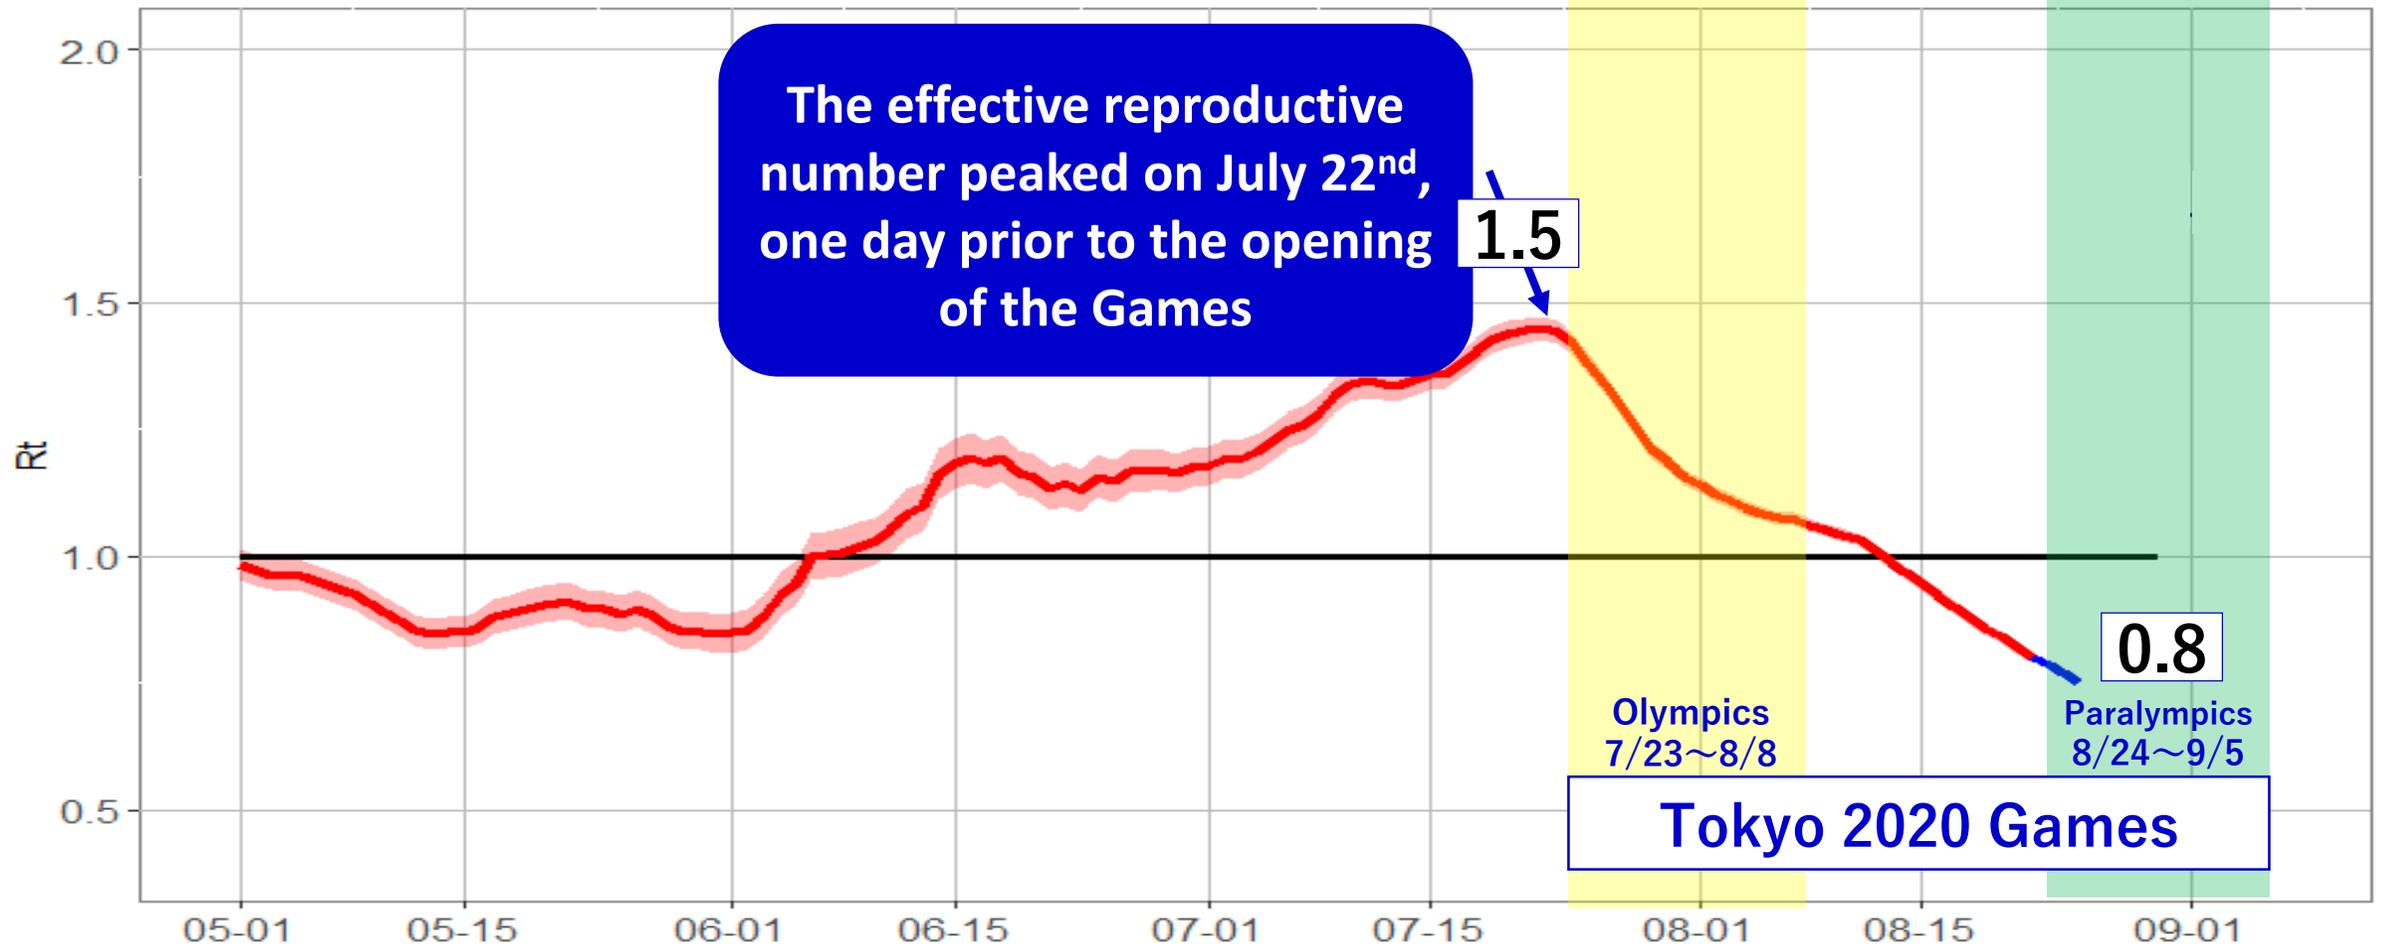

(*Games stakeholders who traveled from overseas)
※ A surplus of 300 beds secured by the Organising Committee released for use by Tokyo citizens

The positivity rate for athletes and Games stakeholders traveling from overseas was lower than initially projected.

Delivering a safe and secure Games

Changes in the Effective Reproductive Number

(from materials issued for a Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare advisory board meeting held September 8, 2021)

The effective reproductive number in Tokyo peaked on July 22nd, the day prior to the opening ceremony of the Olympic Games, and consistently decreased during the Games.