

Nerima City Resource Recovery Center

As a base for the Nerima City Resource Recovery Project, recyclables from the home (old clothes/fabric, used cooking oil, pots and pans, kettles, dry-cell batteries, small rechargeable batteries, paper cartons, printer ink cartridges, and small appliances), as well as large-sized waste can be brought to the center. In addition, furniture that can be reused is repaired and cleaned, and is then exhibited and sold at the Toyotama, Sekimachi, and Kasugacho Recycle Centers. In October, projects for recycling metal and refining used cooking oil have also been started.

At our center, we have incorporated wind and solar power generation, roof and wall greening, and rainwater usage in order to reduce our impact on the environment.
